PROFESSIONAL ETHICS

“Society in the future may become progressively intolerant of voluntary professional institutions especially if they are the bulwark of private practice, and yet be oblivious to the truth that in these institutions resides a most precious liberty essential to the health of a civilised society.”

Lord Butler of Saffron Walden

“These are my politics: to change what we can; to better what we can; but still to bear in mind that man is but a devil weakly fettered by some generous beliefs and impositions; and for no word however sounding, and no cause however just and pious to relax the stricture of these bonds.”

Robert Louis Stevenson,
The Dynamiter
