

DLAS and CAC

by Francis Bennion

FB served for a time as a member of the Executive Committee of the Defence of Literature and the Arts Society (DLAS), which was founded in 1968. In 1983 the DLAS was relaunched as the Campaign Against Censorship (CAC). The following is a quotation from the CAC home page:

‘The CAC is the successor to the Defence of Literature and the Arts Society—hence our web address—that was founded in 1968 to assist writers, artists, and others threatened by censorship, and to campaign for reform of censorship laws. In 1983 the DLAS was relaunched as the CAC with the object of promoting freedom of expression in all its forms and combating restrictions on that freedom and its exercise.’
